BY-LAWS

By-law I. Membership

- 1) The Association shall have three classes of membership as follows; Active, Family and Honorary.
- 2) Any person actively interested in the aims and objectives of the Association can become an active member of the Association upon payment of such annual membership fee as may from time to time be determined by the board of Directors.
- 3) Family memberships shall be established to include parents or guardians, and their children under the age of eighteen (18) years. The annual fee for such Family membership shall be fixed by the Board of Directors from time to time. In the case of Family Memberships the parents or guardians shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of active members including the right to vote.
- 4) Any person who has made an outstanding contribution to the welfare of the Association or the objectives may be elected to honorary membership on recommendation of the Board of Directors. Such recommendations shall be made at the annual meeting.
- 5) Honorary members shall be entitled to all privileges of membership except those of voting or holding office.
- 6) The subscribers shall be deemed active members of the Association until the first annual general meeting.
- 7) The Board of Directors of the Association shall have the power, by vote of three-fourths of those present at a duly convened meeting, to expel or suspend any member when the conduct of such member shall be considered by the Board of Directors of the Association to be improper, unbecoming or likely to endanger the welfare, interest or character of the Association, or when such member wilfully commits a breach of the By-laws or rules of the Association.

No such member shall be expelled or suspended without first having been notified of the charges and then given opportunity to be heard by the Board of Directors of the Association at a meeting to be called for the purpose; such notification shall be sufficient if mailed to the member's usual place of address by registered mail at least five (5) days prior to the meeting.

If the member so desires, the decision of the Board of Directors of the Association may be appealed at the next annual meeting of the Association, held after the date of expulsion; the decision of this meeting to be final, but until such appeal has been allowed such person shall no longer be a member of the Association.
