- The background of the slide is a photograph of several sailboats on the water. The boats have white sails with various colored stripes and logos. One boat in the foreground has a sail with a red, white, and blue design and the number "1443". Another boat to the right has a sail with a blue and white design and the number "14". A yellow buoy is visible in the water in the lower right corner. In the background, a large industrial ship is docked at a pier, and hills are visible in the distance.
1. Improving: our facilities, safety, programmes and services
  2. Protecting: our compound and assets
  3. Embracing: environmental stewardship and sustainability
  4. Engaging: partners and stakeholders to sustain and grow capabilities

Course Made Good 2045: JSC User Comments

- Long live Jericho! Thank you for putting this plan together and for your support of this lovely community space for many years to come!
- As someone in urban planning/landscape architecture I very much appreciated reading the report. Nicely done.
- JSCA is already a perfect model of a community hub for water sports for the city. The key is preserving this special place.

Course Made Good 2045: JSC User Comments

- One of the best parts of Vancouver, without a doubt.
- It is a truly special public space at a time when so many watersport facilities are private and for the affluent only. Your mission is critical and appreciated.
- Keep user costs affordable

Course Made Good 2045: JSC User Comments

- Jericho is a jewel of Vancouver and I feel very privileged for the great sense of freedom it provides!
- I think this is a great organization, doing good work, and you should be very proud of all that you do.
- The deck is one of my favorite places in the city. It's become very popular the last several years.
